

remembering rosemary: a memoir

His hands smell of grease-as if he has been working on his car. His stomach is big and soft on my back. His weight is going to crush or kill me. I want to fight back, but he is too big I can hardly breathe. He is sweating. I hate it. Rosemary Revell was a bright and witty high school English teacher who loved to engage in verbal repartee. Yet there was a huge discrepancy between the appearance of her seemingly happy life as a mother, dedicated teacher, and supportive friend, and the feelings of self-loathing she hid inside. In 2000, Revell began to experience what she thought were hallucinations. After seeking psychotherapeutic help, she was told she was regaining a memory she didn't realize she had lost. As Revell began to remember, the overwhelming emotional and physical pain from the past erupted with relentless agony and terror, causing severe post-traumatic stress disorder. During her six years of therapy, Revell relied on her writing, faith, loving friends, and sheer tenacity and courage to emerge from her painful journey of integrating the past with the present. In telling her story, she speaks for those who remain silent. Remembering Rosemary is a testament to both the suffering and the wondrous ability of the human spirit to prevail.-Daniel Rudd, PhD

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: "We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. "The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers." After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender's standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: "It's fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. "Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. "In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement." The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
