Excerpt: ... tunity of knowing him thoroughly, and appreciating and admiring him in proportion to the extent of our knowledge, that we should express in fit and proper terms the sorrow we feel for his death, and our sense of the great loss which has befallen us and the whole community. There are none of us who have not felt the genial influences of his cheerful, frank and manly temper and disposition; who have not admired the grace and eminent courtesy of his manners, and the vigor and quickness of his intellect. Amply armed with all the resources of the advocate, he was seldom found unprepared, or taken by surprise. Zealous in behalf of his clients, skilful and forcible in attack, and prompt and efficient in defence, he brought to the aid of his large supply of legal learning, a profound and instinctive sense of right, and a forcible, sparkling and persuasive eloquence. Nature had been eminently liberal to him, and he had not been ungrateful to her for her bounty, but had cultivated well his ripened intellect by an extensive and judicious course of reading. In the social circle, he charmed every one. Few men excelled him in conversational power; none in the grace and elegance of his deportment. He was formed to charm men and women alike; and in any forum, in any legislative body, in any assembly of rank and fashion, he would have been a noted and distinguished man. His memory will not die for many years among us. We shall long, very long, miss him in our daily walks, fancy we hear the cheerful tones of his voice, and look in vain for his pleasant and manly countenance. It is hard, indeed, that one so brilliant, of so happy and genial a temperament, in the prime and pith of his manhood, and the full vigor of an ample intellect, so well fitted to enjoy life himself and...

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
