Not illustrated. 1860 edition. Excerpt: ...be observed, but most of the loofe ftones have been taken away for farming purpofes. Ascending the hills above Llangelynin, we arrive at a ridge called Cefn Maen Namor, overlooking the mallow valley that descends towards the tops of the hills above the old village at Dwygyfylchi. Turn to the left over the high ferrated ridge of Tal-y-fan, whence there are charming views, and then descend on the other side until you reach a rough cartway. Again turn to the left, and before long there is seen the little village of Ro. This route cannot be taken quite with-drawing-room fashion. Parts of it are rough and boggy. Ro is a miserable little village prettily situated at the foot of the mountains, on the banks of Afon Ro, a shallow river passing over boulders. There are two small wooden foot-bridges over the stream, which have a picturesque look. There is small accommodation here in the refreshment way. The traveller may content himself with eggs and bacon at a little beer-mop, with perhaps a dim of trout. Another day, and it requires a long one, start from Conway to Ro, and then walk over the mountains to the charming village of Aber. This is rather a long walk, and was undertaken by us in happy ignorance of its extent, the ordnance map having been left behind. We trudged and trudged along, thinking that Aber was only two or three miles distant from Ro; but having walked a considerable distance, a chance Welsh shepherd told us it was still about two or three miles off. Another hours walk, and another chance shepherd again to tell us that our destination was about two or three miles distant; but this would have been the answer no matter what part of the road we had been in. The Welfh mepherds, as a rule, do not underftand Englim, but they have picked up a...

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
