

Harbour Plaza: La Boulangerie

CECILE BAUDIN has a very comfortable life in the city but her world is about to come crashing down around her when her husband announces they are moving to Oyster Point. When his work dictates that he moves far from the city, he is determined to have his wife by his side. She is reluctant to give up her lifestyle but he is resolute. Her first exposure to the recently devastated town which is to become her new home does nothing to reassure or placate her. However, the prospect of returning to her career as a baker and opening her own boulangerie does provide some enticement. Believing her family roots to be firmly planted in France, Cecile is shocked to find what she knows of her own life to be a lie and that she has a very recent connection to Oyster Point. This episode of Harbour Plaza follows Ceciles somewhat reluctant relocation to the small Queensland coastal town, the initial friendships she makes and her assimilation into the new world of the shopping plaza that emerges from the rubble of the town. Follow her life as it unfolds in future episodes of the Harbour Plaza story, and she finds herself playing a vital role in the lives of her other plaza family members while dealing with the shocks -- and horror -- associated with her own recent family history. Harbour Plaza is a serial a bit like your favourite soap opera bringing you characters you love, and those you love to hate. Each months bite-sized episode lends itself to being read in either one sitting or over a number of short sessions, and is a perfect read for the commute to work, your lunch break, or a quiet time at the end of the day maybe after the kids have gone to bed. And the sneak preview of next months story line that comes at the end of each episode will leave you wanting more.

Breaking News Ongoing skepticism over the impact of brexit suggests that rental growth in prime central London Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: "We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. "The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers." After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender's standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: "It's fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. "Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. "In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement." The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
