

No Lonesome Road: SELECTED PROSE AND POEMS

Rediscovery of one of Appalachias most important and pioneering literary voices and social justice activists This is the first book to celebrate the life and writing of one of the most charismatic Southern leaders of the middle twentieth century, Don West (1906-1992). West was a poet, a pioneer advocate for civil rights, a preacher, a historian, a labor organizer, a folk-music revivalist, an essayist, and an organic farmer. He is perhaps best known as an educator, primarily as cofounder of the Highlander Folk School in Tennessee and founder of the Appalachian South Folklife Center in West Virginia. Road allows Don West to speak for himself. It provides the most comprehensive collection of his poetry ever published, spanning five decades of his literary career. It also includes the first comprehensive and annotated collection of Wests nonfiction essays, articles, letters, speeches, and stories, covering his role at the forefront of Southern and Appalachian history, and as a pioneer researcher and writer on the Souths little-known legacy of radical activism. Drawing from both primary and secondary sources, including previously unknown documents, correspondence, interviews, FBI files, and newspaper clippings, the introduction by Jeff Biggers stands as the most thorough, insightful biographical sketch of Don West yet published in any form. contributions of West and also serves as a thoughtful reflection on the interactions between the radicals of the 1930s and the 1960s. The best possible introduction to his extraordinary life and work, this annotated selection of Don Wests writings will be inspirational reading for anyone interested in Southern history, poetry, religion, or activism.

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: "We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. "The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers." After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender's standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: "It's fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. "Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. "In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement." The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
