

Floured (A Recipe for Love) (Volume 1)

Emily Barnes is a baker. She likes things measured and timed. She knew she was taking a risk when she sent her rent money to her sister, but that's what you do when someone you love needs your help. Now, without an apartment that she needs to run her home based muffin business, she's faced with a choice. Couch surfing, separated by very thin walls, and her very loud best friends, or house sitting an otherwise empty Upper East Side luxury apartment overlooking Central Park. Obviously it's a no-brainer for this smart cookie. To an outside it would appear that Declan Hayes has it all; more money than he can spend in a lifetime, every female, available or otherwise, in New York City vying for his attention, parents who are considered the it couple amongst the whos who of the city, and brains that are almost as highly rated as his looks. To the outside world his life was perfect, but from his perspective, his life was an out of focus blur. Declan is used to people asking things of him and saying no, but for Maggie, his parents cook and house keeper, he would do just about anything, including going over to his parents apartment to check on her pseudo niece who is staying there. His plan was to get in and get out, but the second he saw her in that itty bitty outfit singing and dancing around the normally cold and dismal place he never thought of as home, something changed. Something about her sparked the place to life. She for once made it warm and inviting. He finally understood the phrase there's no place like home. She became his focus. Can Emily and Declan trust the timing of their lives or adjust the angle of the lens from which they see their lives? Will hope, faith, trust and ? Love? Will these things be enough for Emily and Declan to get the one thing they both never thought they needed in life? It's a good thing they are Floured because life is about to get sticky. This is Lane Martin's debut novel and Book #1 in the A Recipe for Love series. Due to explicit content, Floured is recommended for mature readers.

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
