

Soul Of Rah (Saga Of The Rah Book 2)

Soul of Rah, the second book of the Saga Of The Rah series, begins with the assassins ship docking at the Fortress of the Amega on the cliffs of Anatolia. As the ship enters the harbor, Mochlos, High Priests of the Moon and maker of The Rah, schemes to make himself indispensable to Rush in order to assure his position in his new home. To his dismay Rush has appointed Nikolaus Lieutenant General of Amega, leaving the priests fate uncertain, and has disappeared in the night to carry out a contract made with dying King Hattusilis to kill his own son, leaving his grandson Mursilis successor to the Hittite throne. But Rushs work is interrupted by the ambitious consort to the Kings son, Sophina, a meeting that will ultimately leave Amega open to a diabolical Amorite counterattack set in motion by a plague animal. Meanwhile, in Amega, Mochlos hatches his own evil plan. He uses poison to sicken the boy-god, Rah, in order to convince the assassin that only he, High Priest of the Moon and the slave-gods maker, can control the god within him. In Soul of Rah, fact is married to invention as the author continues the saga of the slave-god Rah during the last days of the reign of Hittite King Hattusilis, with the unsolved assassination of his son and the puzzling and inexplicably brief Hittite control of Babylon in 1600 B.C..

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
