Alan Beard's collection of short stories evoke a disturbing world of suppressed passion and unpredictable violence. A stunning collection of stories about sex, drugs and cities. Winner of the Tom Gallon award, regular contributor to Radio Four, and published across the spectrum of story magazines and anthologies, Alan Beard has long been recognised as a master of the modern short story. By turns comic and unsettling, these stories are framed by the complex urban landscapes and deal with the everyday reality of modern living. Here is life that goes on in today's factories, pubs and council flats, observed with humor...They are by turns comic, tender and unsettling. The setting is a recognizable one of music, soccer, stolen sex and cheap drugs. The characters struggle with their conflicting desires and try to come to terms with the loss of a job, of a marriage, of illusions. Framed by the complex urban landscapes of the West Midlands UK, these stories are unforgettable snapshots of damaged and resilient lives that could happen anywhere in the world. Superb His approach combines an often startling desire for stylistic experimentation with an honest commitment to the issues of the day. Time Out A writer of real talent and originality Alan Ross, London Magazine Alan Beard's stories are so strong because they are full of a potent understatement. He uses deliberately downbeat, low-key effects to get at the pathos of ordinary but extraordinary lives. Wistfulness, nostalgia, sadness and comedy blend to give his stories that true cutting edge. John Murray, Panurge Beard's stories avoid cartoon terrors and verbal trickery and, instead, rely for their effects on honest observation and sharp declarative sentences. He achieves a startling poignancy Times Literary Supplement A truly fine collection The Times

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
