

The Odes of Pindar: Including the Principal Fragments (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Odes of Pindar: Including the Principal Fragments Pindar, the greatest of the lyrical poets of Greece, was a native of Boeotia. He was born at Cynos-cephalae, about half a mile to the west of Thebes. He has himself recorded the fact that the date of his birth coincided with the celebration of the Pythian festival at Delphi, a festival that always fell in the third of the four years of the Olympic period. According to the lexicographer Surdas, the poet was born in the sixty-fifth Olympiad. Ol. 65, 3 corresponds to 518 B.C., and this date has been widely accepted. The most probable alternative is Ol. 64, 3, that is 522 b.c. In support of this earlier date, it is urged that all the ancient authorities described the poet as flourishing, that is, as being about forty years of age, at the time of the Persian war of 481-479 b.c. Had Pindar been born in 518, he would have been only 37 at the beginning, and 39 at the end of the war. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books. Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
