

Golf Without Guilt

while its normally paramount to keep the mind totally devoid of distractions during the game, I had achieved the exact opposite. Id kept my mind totally devoid of golf Its the club championship final. Eighteen holes played, eighteen to go and its all square. But for Peter Christie this is not just any game of golf. It is the culmination of a six-week campaign to justify his need to play. And he should not even be there. It is his wedding anniversary. Needless to say, his concentration is not what it should be. Instead of seeing his ball, all he can see is his wife, Helen. And if this isnt bad enough, he is pitted in the match against Terry, a conniving, obnoxious bore. Golf without Guilt is a very funny and absorbing analysis of human foibles, played out over eighteen holes. This is the game from hell because Peter is not just playing for the club championship, he is playing for his marriage and for his own sanity. Martin OConnor has written the definitive exploration of the golf fanatics mind. What makes an addict tick? What is it like to live with one? What is it like to play like one? What is it like to play like one? What is it like to be continually misunderstood.? And ultimately, as Peter Christie asks himself, Will I ever be able to play golf without guilt? This is the book for every husband who loves golf and every wife who cant understand why. It is eighteen holes in the life of a married golfer.

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: “We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. “The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers.” After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender’s standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: “It’s fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. “Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
