

Tiger in a Trap: Hip Hop Fiction: A B-Cool Novel

Whats this about? Everything has a price, yeah, but everything has an expiration date too. Hot and spicy, real and racy, with an in your face style, but with a voice thats all too human and a lot of fun to read. Its about getting out of abusive relationships, but also understanding why we get stuck in them and cant move on. Aimed at mature High school and College students who listen to the top-40 and watch Fresh Prince of Bel-Air religiously. It can also be enjoyed by anyone else who loves fun and sexy multicultural young adult stories. In a nutshell: This is a fictionalized story happening in the real-life setting of Little Burgundy. The hood is in the midst of a gang war fought between Black shot-callers who run legit money making machines, and religious nuts acting like the Taliban. Going on with their day-to-day lives are two Bengali girls who are best friends and truly inseparable. They form a codependent bond wherein each needs the other, but their connection is about to be shaken up very badly. Bokul, the point of view character of the story, has suffered from excessive eczema most of her life, and has learned to live vicariously through Moni, a beautiful Bengali socialite and live party animal. This girl has done something so shameful though, that she took a turn and is now becoming a religious activist. Bokul sees their friendship getting affected, but things happen and set the expiration date label on their precious relationship. After encountering a sexy stranger who shows a lot of interest in her, Bokuls long-dead sex-drive comes roaring back to life. Her desires affect her relationship with her best friend and how she starts seeing the situation of her hood, all while her family and her community are getting affected by the religious extremism that is quickly taking over. A die-hard Stallone fan, Bokul sees herself as Rocky Balboa, as she enters the ring, and struggles to come out on top, because shes a fighter and doesn't want to give up. What's it like? Loosely based on the Hindu story of Sati, where a young girl defends love even if it leads to death, Tiger in a Trap is a Saturday Night Fever for this generation, being all about love of music, dancing, but also about disillusionment. Tiger in a Trap is a cross between exotic emotional roller-coasters like The Kite Runner, and ghetto survivor stories that force one to be real when friends become poisonous, like the movie Juice. Fans of Sister Souljah's novels like The Coldest Winter Ever and A Deeper Love Inside, won't be able to put Tiger in a Trap down. The fast-paced humor and the references to popular urban culture embellish the original scenario that merges three different ideas for the first time together: abuse is a state of codependency, young Bangladeshi female protagonists, and the survival of the strongest theme of hip hop culture. About the author: While working in cultural centers, the author was exposed to strong Bangladeshi teenage girls who would joke about arranged marriages, socially awkward mothers, and autocratic fathers who demand unquestioned authority, despite having gambling problems and losing respect from everyone in their community. Inspired by the humor in these young women's lives, the author writes about the struggle found on the rundown streets of Montreal's poorer areas where ethnic minorities mix. Graduated from Concordia University, he holds a B.A. in English Literature and a minor in Religious Studies.

Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: "We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. "The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers." After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender's standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: "It's fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. "Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. “In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement.” The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
