

Ennio in agosto (Italian Edition)

Ennio Opidevi, quarantenne, omosessuale, professore di lettere classiche, sta preparando un intervento per un convegno sull'imperatore filosofo Marco Aurelio. Per sfuggire all'afa di agosto e al tormento di aver tradito e deluso Herbert, un giovanotto tedesco incontrato a Heidelberg, decide di recarsi qualche giorno dalle zie che abitano nella casa di campagna dove trascorreva le vacanze da ragazzo. Qui incontra nuovamente alcuni amici dell'adolescenza: Clara, innamorata di lui vent'anni prima; Guido, ora marito di Clara e padre del loro figlio Lapo; don Ernesto, il parroco che gli permetteva di esercitarsi sul pianoforte della canonica; Gualtiero, con cui andava a pescare i gamberi di fiume. Dopo un'iniziale accoglienza affettuosa e cordiale, il prete si dimostra sempre più ostile verso Ennio, che non sa spiegarsi quel mutato atteggiamento nei suoi confronti. Mentre si reca a piedi in paese, incontra un ragazzo di 18-20 anni che rimane sedotto dal fascino del bel professore. Ennio lo vedrà tre volte, rendendosi subito conto che l'incontro tra lui e il giovane, di nome Matteo, è ben diverso dai tanti incontri di sesso occasionale avuti in precedenza. Diviso tra la forte attrazione per Matteo e l'amore profondo di Herbert, disposto a perdonarlo, Ennio trascorre notti agitate da incubi e decide infine di rientrare in città, anche perché ha saputo che Herbert è in Italia. Durante l'ultimo incontro con Matteo, il giovane borbotta tra sé e sé alcuni versi di una poesia d'amore che sconvolgono Ennio. Da quel momento, in un crescendo di rivelazioni, il bel professore scoprirà il gioco tragico del destino. All'alba, prima di partire, Ennio fa un'ultima camminata verso le colline. Si addentra nel bosco. È dilaniato da attacchi di panico, senso di colpa e rabbia. Stremato, si lascia cadere sotto un castagno. E scoprirà ben altro.

Breaking News Ongoing skepticism over the impact of brexit suggests that rental growth in prime central London Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% 7 hours ago LONDON FLATS 0 Yorkshire Building Society has launched a 2-year discount rate mortgage at 0.89% up to 65% loan-to-value. The product comes with a £1,495 fee, though the society also offers a £995 fee option at 1.05%. James Farrow, senior mortgage manager at Yorkshire Building Society, said: "We are very pleased to offer borrowers the lowest mortgage rate ever available. "The cost of funding has fallen in recent weeks and as a financially strong building society with no external shareholders to satisfy we have the ability to pass this on to borrowers." After the 2-year period the mortgage will revert to the lender's standard variable rate, which is currently 4.74%. Rachel Springall, finance expert at Moneyfacts, said: "It's fantastic to see such low rates on offer from Yorkshire Building Society and the choice between variable or fixed deal will appeal to different types of borrowers. "Those looking for more flexibility over the shorter term may prefer a discounted deal, but those looking for some security could choose the fixed rate. "In such a low interest rate environment it would be ideal for borrowers to consider overpaying their mortgage. As with any option borrowers would be wise to weigh up the entire package before entering any arrangement." The post Yorkshire unveils record low rate of 0.89% appeared first on Mortgage Introducer.
